MONTHLY STAYS

Monthly RV sites in Bandera, Texas

Most of the Wagon Wheel is people staying a while. Seven of the twelve pads are taken by long-term residents, so if you're looking for somewhere to park a rig for a month or several, you'd be joining a small, settled park rather than a holiday campground that empties out on Sunday night.

ABOUT THE PARK

It’s a small, family-run park

Bandera Wagon Wheel RV Park sits just outside town in the heart of the Texas Hill Country — close enough that downtown Bandera’s shops, honky-tonks, and historic storefronts are a short drive away, far enough that the evenings stay quiet.

It’s a small, family-run park: the managers live on site, so there’s almost always someone around to help. Sites are simple and well kept, with full hookups ready to go when you pull in. Bring the dog — the park welcomes pets as part of the family, and there’s a dog park (large and small) right on the property.

On higher ground, on purpose:
the whole property sits outside the FEMA 100-year floodplain. A hard rain in the Hill Country means a nice view of the Medina River running high — not a 2am scramble to hitch up and move your rig. Call (830) 850-0805
